The Minister of Public Housing, Spatial Development, Environment and Infrastructure (VROMI), the Honorable Christopher Emmanuel

Philipsburg, August 26th, 2017

Ref: SG VROMI

Honorable Minister Emmanuel,

Following my earlier questions and press reports on this matter, kindly inform me of the following:

Did the Minister obtain legal advice before undertaking this course of action? If so, please share.

Did Personnel Affairs render its advice on this action by the Minister?

Which other instances of this type of action is the Minister aware of? When and by whom?

How does the Minister intend to deal with other legal responsibilities of the SG, such as his role in the decision making process and his responsibilities in accordance with other regulations?

Has there been a performance evaluation of the SG of Vromi? If so, when and what were the results?

Which functions of VROMI are "screened" functions?

Has the civil servant in question been heard?

Please outline specifically what matters have been delayed or retarded or are expected to be due to the function of SG, that lead the Minister to in essence "sideline" this functionary?

Awaiting your prompt answers,

Respectfully,

Sarah A. Wescot-Williams, MP

The Minister of General Affairs, the honorable W. V. Marlin

Philipsburg, August 26th 2017

Ref: Sidelining the SG position

Honorable Minister,

In reference to the above in the case of the SG of VROMI, kindly respond to:
Is this a necessary and/or desirous trend within the government organization?
Are there other intentions with respect to the present organizational structure of government?
Have the SGs of government been evaluated? When and what are/were the results?
Have management meetings been held in accordance with the LIOL?
Kindly solicit urgent legal advice and respond to the question whether a minister can relieve a SG of his/her responsibilities as assigned by the LIOL, in particular art 3 of this ordinance.
If this is possible, what are some of the consequences and/or other changes that this decision will make necessary?

Respectfully,

Sarah A. Wescot-Williams, MP (DP)
